U. S. OFFICERS RAID AND ARREST MANY ON HOUR CHARGES

Week-End Tour of Country
From Canal Point To Hendry County Line

THREE WOMEN IN NET.
TWO ARE DISCHARGED

Deputy Sheriffs Also Make Arrests, On Gambling and Vagrancy Charges

Federal prohibition officers made raids Saturday night in the territory from Canal Point to the Hendry county line. Disposition of the cases by United States Commissioner Robert L. Earnest at West Palm Beach is thus reported from the county seat:

Mrs. Emma Tracer of Canal Point was placed under $1,000 bond for her appearance at court. Charges of possession and sale, and Howard Moffett, Belle Glade, was released under $1,000 bond for appearance at the federal courts on possession and sale charges.

"Pop" Warren, near Clewiston, was committed to the county jail when he failed to post a $1,000 temporary bond on possession and sale, and Leo Purdy, negro, Belle Glade, was committed when he failed to post a $1,000 final bond on the same charges.

The following possession, sale and maintaining a common nuisance cases were disposed of: Mack West, Belle Glade, in jail under $1,000 bond; Howard Heston, Belle Glade, in jail under $1,500 bond; H. R. Hamblin, near Belle Glade, in jail under $1,500 bond; Leo Chair Greer, near Pahokee released under $1,500 bond; Jack Whidden, near Clewiston, released under $1,000 bond; Fred Whidden, near Clewiston, $2,000 bond and Charles G. Price, released under a final bond of $500.

Those charged were Will Taylor, Belle Glade, charged with possession and sale; Jennie Greene, near Clewiston, possession, sale and maintaining a common nuisance; Dorothy Hamblin, near Clewiston, possession, sale and maintaining a common nuisance; Charles West, Belle Glade, possession and sale; Sarah Purdy, Belle Glade, possession and sale; Mary Whidden, near Clewiston, possession and interfering with government officials.

At Belle Glade, the sheriff's forces seized some gambling paraphernalia and jailed E. A. Thomas, negro, on a technical charge of vagrancy.

Sheriff's deputies with the aid of Chief of Police W. R. Harrison and Constable John Kirk of Pahokee, also arrested three white persons, John Romero, Juanita Flowers and Peggy Saxton on technical charges of vagrancy.

Deputy Sheriff Hiram Lawrence and R. G. Fisher took part in the Everglades activities.

FARTY AT SCOUT CAMP

A party was enjoyed by the young people of Pahokee and Canal Point Friday night at the old Scout camp near Indian town. Games were played and cats were served. Those present were: Margaret Hill, Edith Sandridge, Dorothy Shearer, Jessie Maloy, Olga Humphries, Mary Wilder, Ruth Peoples, Margaret Sandridge, Erin Jones, Almada and Alta Jones, Dorothy Smith, Mary Peipolt, Mrs. E. B. Shores, Mrs. John Bullitt, Miss Stevens, J. D. Hutt-staffer, George Cross, Emory Sears, W. C. Neaves, Don Tabb, Harold Carls, Junior Pultz, Fred Jones, Richard Watkins, Carl Spick, Junior Stuckey, William Simmon, Roscoe Shores and Mr. Cox.

CANAL POINT

A. E. Pittman, proprietor of a wholesale house in West Palm Beach that does a good business in the land where taxes are paid with Edward Wilson, his new salesman and delivery man, Mr. Wilson was formerly with the United Fruit Company. This was the first time Mr. Pittman had been out for two years, his having been detained here in West Palm Beach.

E. L. Tullman is converting the Canal Point dance hall into water, there being more demand for living quarters than for dancing. He has taken a lease on the lot at the corner between the bridge and the post office and expects to erect a building there shortly.

Word from Glenwood, Ga., is that Leo C. Moore has been paid again in the land where taxes are paid. It is hoped they will be likely to take it.

Somewhere lately we saw a statement that the State of Florida owes the I. L. F. $400,000. It's up to the bondholders to get it. If the I. L. F. pay their taxes, he is likely to take it.

While Mr. and Mrs. Avery Bass of Belle Glade were visiting in Canal Point a baby was born to them Sunday night. The baby lived but a short time and was buried Monday at Okechobee. Mrs. Bass, who is remembered in Canal Point as Maude Horn, is recuperating at the Thomas apartments.

C. F. Simmons, who has been staying at Orlando and Geneva, has returned to Canal Point to stay for a while with his son E. W. Simmons, the bookkeeper.

D. L. Hooks of Canal Point has added his grocery store to the chain of the "Better Foods Stores," of which there is one at Pahokee, three at Belle Glade and one at South Bay. These stores have the "serve-yourself" system, and to make use of that plan Mr. Hooks has made the necessary rearrangement of his shelves and counters and the sign and painting has been made to conform to the plan.

She trapped him—tricked him—broke him—but she couldn't stop loving him. See "Men of Chance" at Prince Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Medicine Peddler Got Out of His Class

A man driving a car on which the words "9 & 6—liquid or tablet" were painted, was stopped Sunday morning to get a sick negro boy to pay him $5 for "medicine" that would make him well. The driver, a young man who spoke with a foreign accent, was accompanied by two men, one of whom reported the matter to his employer. The proprietary remedy 9 & 6 is manufactured by the Montello Drug Company of Jacksonville, a reputable firm. It is not believed that the Montello Drug Company would countenance the action of an agent in asking $5 for any quantity of 9 & 6 that a negro boy would be warranted in buying, nor approve the sale of any medicine other than its own by its agent. The driver of the 9 & 6 car was told by the negro boy's employer to get out of town inside of 15 minutes or his arrest would be asked for pretending to practice medicine without a license. In two minutes the car had passed the north toll gate en route east. The negro's employer sent the boy to a reputable white physician for treatment.

the ones that are stuck, the court having said that the trustees must be in the lands where taxes are paid and the internal improvement fund must pay the taxes on the individual cases. It did not pay. It may have been smart of the bondholders to get the court to say that, but we doubt that it is going to induce an Everglades owner to pay any taxes he would not have paid anyhow. If the owner can get an extension of credit by letting the trustees of the I. L. F. pay his taxes, he is likely to take it.

Somehow lately we saw a statement that the State of Florida owes the I. L. F. $400,000. It's up to the bondholders to get it. If the I. L. F. pay their taxes, he is likely to take it.

On the face of the decision, Everglades drainage district has been removed from the prospect of receivership, for the federal court has held that resources of the internal improvement fund are assets of the drainage district. It is yet to be learned what resources the I. L. F. has in relation to the drainage district. The reports from Pensacola do not make it clear whether the court extends the obligation to state lands located outside of Everglades drainage district. If the I. L. F. is actually made guarantor of the drainage bond, and if the I. L. F. can't pay, the chance for receivership shifts to the I. L. F.

It looks as if the three Federal judges who sat at Pensacola are running the Everglades. An insolvent clothier was being pressed to pay a note. "Were you ever in the clothing business?" the judge asked. "No," the creditor said. "Well," said the clothier, "you are now." The Everglades trustee, however, is going to keep on growing vegetables; he will let the other fellows argue about who is in the business of running a drainage district.

COMMUNITY GOSSIP

The name of the town in Georgia from which Earl Mallard and his son, Earl, were expelled, is Ludowick, a name that is hard to spell until you get used to it. J. S. Mallard, father of Earl, has been visiting in Canal Point for the past six weeks, having come down when Earl took his wife to Georgia, and he tells how the town got its name. The name used to be Liberty City. The name was changed when a Johnson City, and there were mix-ups, so the name was changed when the German-Pole, Ludowick, from Bremen, Germany, opened the works. The plant is now shut down, having been consolidated with other plants. The elder Mr. Mallard was a railroad man for many years and then got into highway construction, from which Earl and John got the experience they are now utilizing as employees of the United States Sugar Corporation.

We were talking the other night about first one thing and then another, like the prohib' raids and about the early days on the lake and a recent change in the Moore Haven, and just as speaking of Tenth street reminds you of Eleventh street, this reminded a member of the group about what we are going to tell you.

"This man Moore that Moore Haven was named after was a fine man," he said. "I was clearing ground for him and there were lots of snakes, and I'm scared as death of snakes, and one day when he was out there I said to him, 'Mr. Moore, there's no doctor here and if a man got snake-bit we ought to have some whiskey.' So Mr. Moore said, 'I don't approve of drinking.' And I said, 'Neither do I, but this is exceptional.' So Mr. Moore said, 'All right, I've got two quarts in my grip and I'll send them out to you,' and he did.

"I had a patch of peppers that was about so high, looking fine, and I'd figured what they'd bring me and I had the money all spent, my money, and long come a frog and I bit right to the ground. It made me feel bad, so I took a drink of the quarts and then another drink, and remembering what the liquor was for I went out and I said to Mr. Moore, 'I don't like this. Not snake-bit but frost bit, whiskey gone, send two quarts more.'"

50TH BIRTHDAY

Relatives of Mrs. F. A. Todd surprised her with a birthday party at her home in Canal Point Wednesday evening. Bountiful gifts were presented. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to those present: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. M. Todd and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mincin and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mrs. J. Leo Maxwell, Mrs. Albert Gantt and children, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Mosley, Mrs. R. E. Grigsby, Doc James, Tiny, Byron, Sally and Kansas Todd.

CLASS IN FLOWERS

The regular meeting of the Flower Study class of the agricultural hall of the Pahokee high school building Thursday afternoon, Professor H. L. Spivey, who has charge of the class gave an informative lecture on "Annals." The meeting was well attended.

MRS. COLSON'S BRIDGE
Mrs. James Francis Colson was hostess Saturday afternoon to the members of the Canal Point Bridge Club at her home in Sunset Villa.

Garden flowers were attractively arranged in the living-room where two tables were in play. High score for the afternoon went to Mrs. Lawton Sims, and second high to Mrs. W. P. Jennings. A delicious salad course and Russian tea were served as refreshments. Members present were Mrs. Sims, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. A. Hansen, Mrs. L. C. Goolsby, Mrs. Clinton Colson, Mrs. Luke Frazer and Mrs. P. Hoesel.

BELLE GLADE

A. R. Richardson, land agent for the Internal Improvement board, who is stationed at prison farm, has returned from the Florida Keys where with F. C. Elliot, of Tallahassee, he has been making an inspection of the swamp and overflow lands. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Elliot.

Henry Tate has put in substantial foundation for a building a mile north of Belle Glade on Pa-hokee road, not far from the Kruse brothers, with whom he is farming. The building will be his residence and machinery shop. He has a contract to buy a part of the Lambert land on which the house is to be built.

George W. and Dorothy Scarborough will open a stock of goods in the building from which Joe Kahn this week moved his stock. Mr. Scarborough was manager of the Kahn store at Belle Glade.

Collins Kills Self In West Palm Beach

William M. Collins, 41, who is said to have conducted a used car business in Belle Glade until recently, is dead in West Palm Beach of a bullet from a .22 calibre rifle said to have been fired by himself at his home in West Palm Beach, 740 M street.

Patrolman Richard Albright arrived on the scene less than five minutes after the shot was fired. He learned from Mrs. A. C. Connor, 722 N street, that she had rushed into the house on hearing Mrs. Collins screaming, but did not hear the shot fired. She said Mrs. Collins told her several days ago that her husband had threatened poor business for some time "during the past few weeks." His son said he had been in ill health and had been complaining about poor business for some time.

The .22 calibre rifle was propped muzzle down, against a buffet, where it had fallen and Mrs. Collins hysterical, was beside her husband. His son, Leon C. Collins, 17 years old, was just outside the house. The father had sent him to the corner store for a pack of cigarettes.

Collins was rushed to the hospital in a Mipet ambulance, but died as he was being placed on the emergency operating table.

Patrolman Albright said the family came from Sandersville, Ga., about two years ago.

Beef and Sugar To Be Produced At Prison Farm At Belle Glade

Beef and sugar, as well as vegetables, will be produced at State Prison Farm No. 2 near Belle Glade to feed inmates of state institutions, according to an announcement made by Asst. Superintendent L. F. Chapman. The present program calls for the cultivation of 3,500 acres of Palm Beach county muck land with cow-pasture labor, Mr. Chapman stated. Of this acreage, 1,180 acres will be devoted to sugar cane, 1,280 acres to corn and about 1,000 acres to pasturage and vegetable crops.

Negotiations are now under way for acquiring the 700 acres of sugar cane lying opposite the farm headquarters of the United States Department of Agriculture for a tract of state owned land of Lake Okeechobee. If this deal is consummated, the entire section will be planted to cane.

It is planned to have the prison farm canneries in the sugar cane and the two products shipped to various points in the state possibly other state institutions for consumption.

A 20-acre tract along the Pahokee-Glade highway is now being fenced as cattle pasture. A mixture of dill and carter grass will be sown and a small herd of pure-bred cattle will be placed on it.

H. G. GATES IS BACK ON MOORE HAVEN JOB

Again in Charge of South Florida Farms Co. Land in Glades County

Retirement of Clarence M. Busch of Miami as manager of the South Florida Farms Company at Moore Haven is revealed in the announcement made by the Glades County Democrat that H. G. Gates, lately of Tampa, has returned to Moore Haven to act for White and Osborn of New York, into whose hands the property passed on the dissolution of the trustees arrangement. Mr. Gates has opened an office in the building that was occupied by the Bank of Moore Haven before the bank closed. Property of White and Osborn is being taken over from the Glades and western parts of Glades county, some of it near Caloosahatchee river.

Some 15 years ago a tract of land known as the Nicholson land was taken over from the Nicholson land by a Mr. White, who had been a successful promoter in Seattle, Wash. Clarence M. Busch, later a real estate dealer in Atlantic City, N. J., took an interest with Moore Haven in the Nicholson land and Busch developed, Moore retired and Busch took title as manager.

H. G. Gates, who has returned to Moore Haven, was the resident manager of the Nicholson land in an early period and until a few years ago he went through a trying time in the Nicholson land. He returned to the Lake Okeechobee region will be taken as a promise of better outlook for the country and is a matter of satisfaction to all who know him when he lived here.

OKEELANTA

OKEELANTA, Fla., April 18.—The recent discovery of a skeleton about seven miles southeast of Okeelanta led to an official investigation. Mr. Hubbell, justice of the peace of Belle Glade, as acting coroner, and Russell Fisher, deputy sheriff, after inspecting a jury last Thursday afternoon started for the place of the gruesome find with the six members of the jury. Late in the evening the party returned, having failed in the object of their search; the skeleton was not found.

One of the jurors suggested that perhaps the whole story may have been a "hoax," since the one who reported the find failed to mark the spot. It would have been an absolute impossibility to discover a marker of any kind in the fire-swept, ash-covered Sahara of miles in extent. Only a gallon jug of "shine" placed near the pile of human bones could have guided by the sense of smell unerringly.

E. C. Lyndal, the picture man, visited with his friend Hetherington for a short time Saturday before leaving for the state of Maine.

Members of the Norton family spent part of Sunday with friends here. Dearly 1.30 acre of land.

E. Riebold, stopping with John Newhouse for a number of weeks, returned to his former home, West Palm Beach. A. J. Sullivan from the Brown Company farm is now sharing the Penner house with John.

The local alligator hunters secured four live specimens, the largest measuring seven feet, on their recent trip into the Glades. They will be able on his return to Illinois to confirm the tale of his individual progress by the teeth mark on his leg by the four-foot gator.

Mrs. E. J. Cooper is now slowly recovering from a prolonged stage of rheumatism, with which Mrs. Anjima is at present also troubled.

The work of the county road crew, supplemented by that of many of our public spirited citizens, failed in extinguishing the muck burning underneath the hard surface of the public highway a mile north of the Bolles canal. The present rains do not lessen the danger.
